The White House Internship Program provides a unique opportunity to learn more about the daily operations of the White House and to explore public service. Approximately 100 interns are chosen each spring, summer, and fall to participate in this highly competitive program. The Program is seeking exceptional candidates to apply for the program. In addition to normal office duties, interns attend weekly lectures, tours, volunteer at special events on the White House grounds, and complete an intern community service project in the Washington, DC area. Interns may serve a term in the Fall, Spring or Summer. All candidates must be at least 18 years of age, hold United States citizenship, and be enrolled in a college or university.

Due Dates: Spring 2006-January 10 to May 5, 2006 application deadline in October 15, 2005
